

Funding Enhancements

Response to memorandum 2000: B9 June 5 2000

Following a review it was determined that the best use of the funding enhancements to support students with language disorders and learning disabilities would be to:

- add speech and language pathologists
- add Teaching Assistants for primary students with special needs
- enhance existing technology
- enhance existing materials and resources