

Prerequisite Charts for Classical Studies & International Languages

These charts map out all the courses in the discipline and show the link between courses and the possible prerequisites for them. They do not attempt to depict all possible movements from course to course.

CLASSICAL STUDIES

INTERNATIONAL LANGUAGES

Notes:

Boards and schools may choose to offer their International Languages programs beginning at Level 1 or Level 2.

Codes will be assigned to identify courses for students who have no knowledge of the international language and courses for students who have some knowledge of the language.

Prerequisites for Level 2 International Languages, Academic or Open, will be determined by school boards, depending on the structure of their International Language program.

Classical Studies

Classical Languages, Level 1, Academic (Greek/Latin – LVG AD/LVL AD)

This course introduces students to the achievements of the classical world through the study of Latin or ancient Greek. Students will learn vocabulary and grammar essential for reading and translating classical texts. English is the language of instruction. Through a variety of enrichment activities, such as presentations, debates and dialogues, students will explore such aspects of life in the ancient world as trade, commerce, education, entertainment and social customs while improving their language skills.

Prerequisite: None

Classical Languages, (Greek/Latin – LVG BU/LVL BU) Level 2, University Preparation

This course provides students with opportunities to continue their exploration of the achievements of the ancient world through the study of Latin or ancient Greek. Students will read and translate more complex passages in the classical language and will learn the vocabulary and grammar essential for these activities. English is the language of instruction. Through a variety of methods, such as dramatizations, presentations and hands-on activities, students will investigate aspects of the culture and beliefs of the ancient world, including science, religion and customs.

Prerequisite: Classical Languages, Level 1, Academic

Classical Languages, (Greek/Latin – LVG CU/LVL CU) Level 3, University Preparation

This course provides students with opportunities to further develop their knowledge of the achievements of the ancient world through the study of Latin or ancient Greek. Students will read and translate a broad selection of classical poetry and will learn the vocabulary and grammar essential for these activities. English is the language of instruction. Through a variety of enrichment activities, such as contests, seminars and re-enactments, students will explore elements of the civilization of the ancient world, such as engineering, architecture, politics and literature.

Prerequisite: Classical Languages, Level 2, University Preparation

Classical Civilizations, Grade 12, University Preparation (LVV 4U)

This course allows students to explore the beliefs and achievements of the classical world, which have shaped Western thought and civilization. Students will investigate such aspects of classical culture as its mythology, art, literature and philosophy, as well as elements of ancient Greek and Latin, through a variety of activities such as dramatizations, audio-visual presentations and discussions. By reading classical authors in English and examining archaeological evidence, students will enhance both their communication skills and their ability to think critically and creatively.

Prerequisite: English, Grade 10, Academic or Applied

International Languages

International Languages, Level 1, Academic, (LBA AD – LYX AD)

This course is designed to enable students to begin to communicate with native speakers of the language of study. Students will use simple language and read age- and language-appropriate passages for various purposes. They will explore aspects of the culture of countries where the language under study is spoken, including social customs and the arts, by participating in cultural events and activities involving both print and technological resources.

Prerequisite: None

International Languages, Level 1, Open (LBA AO – LYX AO)

This course introduces students to language elements they will need to begin to communicate with native speakers. Students will participate in practical activities in which they can apply their knowledge and skills, and will begin to explore careers that require knowledge of the language of study. They will explore aspects of the culture of countries where the language under study is spoken, including social customs, music and food, by participating in cultural events and activities involving both print and technological resources.

Prerequisite: None

Classical Studies & International Languages

International Languages, Level 2, Academic

(LBA BD – LYX BD)

This course provides students with the language learning experiences that will enable them to communicate in the language of study. Students will continue to develop and apply their speaking skills in a variety of contexts, and will participate in activities that will improve their reading comprehension and writing skills. They will also continue to explore aspects of the culture of countries where the language under study is spoken by taking part in community-sponsored events and activities involving both print and technological resources. Although students will continue to expand their vocabulary and repertoire of language structures, the language they will use at this level will still be simple.

Prerequisite: Prerequisites will be determined by school boards, depending on the structure of their International Language program

International Languages, Level 2, Open

(LBA BO – LYX BO)

This course provides students with opportunities to further develop their oral communication skills in the language of study, increase their confidence in using the language in practical situations and continue to investigate related career opportunities. Students will be involved in activities that promote the use of the language in real-life situations. They will also continue their exploration of the culture of countries where the language under study is spoken. Although students will continue to expand their vocabulary and repertoire of language structures, the language they will use at this level will still be simple.

Prerequisite: Prerequisites will be determined by school boards, depending on the structure of their International Language program

International Languages, Level 3, University Preparation

(LBA CU – LYX CU)

This course offers students opportunities to further develop their knowledge of the international language and to enhance their communication skills. Students will use increasingly sophisticated language in a variety of activities that will enable them to speak and write with clarity and accuracy. Students will also enhance their thinking skills through the critical study of literature, and continue to explore aspects of the culture of countries where the language is spoken through a variety of print and technological resources.

Prerequisite: International Languages, Level 2, Academic

International Languages, Level 3, Open

(LBA CO – LYX CO)

This course provides students with opportunities to further develop their communication skills in the international language and increase their confidence in applying it in a variety of practical situations, including contexts related to future employment. Students will engage in a variety of activities and use resources that will allow them to use the language in various real-life situations. They will also continue to explore aspects of the culture of countries where the language is spoken and investigate careers that require facility in the language.

Prerequisite: International Languages, Level 2, Academic or Open

International Languages, Level 4, University Preparation

(LBA DU – LYX DU)

This course prepares students for university studies in the international language. Students will enhance their ability to use the language with clarity and precision, and will develop the language skills needed to engage in sustained conversations and discussions, understand and evaluate information, read diverse materials for both study and pleasure, and write clearly and effectively. Students will also have opportunities to add to their knowledge of the culture of countries where the language is spoken through the use of community resources and computer technology.

Prerequisite: International Languages, Level 3, University Preparation

International Languages, Level 4, Open

(LBA DO – LYX DO)

This course provides students with opportunities to consolidate the language skills required for effective communication in business and personal contexts. Students will use a variety of print and technological resources that will promote their ability to apply the language in practical situations, and will engage in activities such as writing memos, reading articles and applying conversational skills in business contexts. They will also add to their knowledge of the culture of countries where the language is spoken by using resources from the local and international community.

Prerequisite: International Languages, Level 3, Preparation or Open